Mrs. Ersila Lytle of Nashville and Miss Ethel Daniel and Mrs. Isaac Patterson of Shelbyville, Tenn., were here a few days ago, the guests of Mrs. Luke Murfree.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The gloomy weather did not prevent church goes from attending services Sunday. Rev. Gooch preached at Mt. Zion at 11 and 3 o'clock. Rev. Storey at night. A new church organization is being discussed. Miss Sadie Caldwell and Mrs. Mary Burken have presented the Shelbyville High School with a very beautiful office chair; other presentations are to be made at the close of exercises, February 21st. The opening of the "Economic Tin Shop" on February 1st was something new for Shelbyville. Everything in the line of kitchen ware can be found and had for 5 and 10 cents. Mr. B. Tillman deserves much praise for his effort to give up a tin shop second to none. It is to be hoped that Mrs. Tillman will soon need an assistant clerk. The First Baptist are soon to have a new organ. Mrs. W. C. Cartwright had a birthday dinner for her husband last Sunday. The students of Turner Normal are to give a concert at the First Baptist Church, Thursday night, February 7th for the benefit of the church. Mrs. Felix Cromwell and little daughter are doing nicely.

HORTENSE NOTES.

Mr. George Darden has returned home from Nashville after spending the summer and autumn there. Miss Mary V. Dickerson returned home, the 28th after spending a month at Turnersville, Tenn., with her relatives there. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Bell Dunn, who came to spend a few weeks with her brother, Mr. Richard Williams. We are sorry to say but the death angel has visited Hortense once more and claimed Mrs. Rosalee Jackson. She died January the 29th, leaving a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Her funeral was preached by Rev. H. Davis. Mr. Willie Mallory and Miss Birdie Bradley were joined together in wedlock January the 30th. The wedding took place at Cumberland Furnace, Tenn. The home of the bride, Mr. Mallory was accompanied with a host of friends and relatives from Hortense. Among them were Misses Corine Washington, Virginia Dickerson and Mrs. Mary Washington, Mr. C. H. Mallory, Mr. Jesse Mallory, Mr. G. B. Suggs and Mr. J. H. Dickerson and Rev. C. H. Jones of Hortense officiated. A nice reception was given at the home of Mr. Mallory's on the night of the 30th. Mr. George Fort of Clarksville is here visiting relatives. Miss Lorena Dickerson of Cumberland Furnace is here visiting Miss Corine Washington. Services were very good Sunday. Mrs. Bell Dunn, Misses Corine Washington, Lorena Dickerson, Mr. J. W. Manace, Mr. Haywood Mallory, Mr. Jesse Mallory and also Mr. and Mrs. Willie Mallory, (Bride and groom) were the guests of Mrs. Love Dickerson and daughter, Virginia Sunday. Mr. George F. Teasley was the guest of Miss Annie Jones Sunday. Mrs. Della Dickerson is on the sick list.

DICKSON NOTES.

Sunday was a gloomy day here. There was a large attendance at St. James A. M. E. Church, Rev. W. L. Ledford preached a splendid sermon. Miss Cora and Elnora Bibb left Monday for the State Normal, Nashville. Lawyer Rhines and Miss Tom Ella Robinson were pleasant visitors of Mrs. Lula Hill Sunday. Dr. Miles was in Nashville this week attending the Meharry Clinics and having some spring clothes made by the Crutcher Tailoring Co., while in the city he was the guest of Lawyer Rhines. Those who are on the sick list are Johnnie Dresslizer, Miss Beulah Suggs, Mrs. Mollie McGill, Mrs. Bessie Pack, Susie Grimes. Dr. S. M. Utley was here this week conducting his quarterly conference. He took the picture of health and reports success all over his district. The Wayman Public School here closed last Friday. Parents should send their children to some school either pay or free. Mrs. R. E. Ross teaches a private school at her home in west Dickson. Mrs. Birdie Jones is able to be up and out again. Miss Hettie O'Neal is some better. Mrs. Della Hall is improving. It is reported that Mrs. Rebecca Perkins, who has been very ill at Martin, Tenn. is better. Mrs. Della Dickerson of Hortense is ill. Wardell Porter is a hustler; he sold ten Globes last Saturday in Dickson. If you want to buy the Globe on Saturday, see Wardell Porter.

STEVENSON (ALA.) NOTES.

Services held at the following churches last Sunday. At the A. M. E. church, of which Rev. C. H. Newby is pastor, and at the C. P. church, of which Rev. H. J. Johnson is pastor. Interest being manifested at both churches. J. H. Hurt, the president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, after being confined to his room a week with the grip, is up again, looking forward to his work with a zealous heart. Indeed, this is a work that needs the attention of our people more especially our young people. We must put forth some effort to reach our boys and girls, the race will take care of itself. Mr. Churby, of Chattanooga, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Cole, this week. Mr. Cam Rudder, one of our leading carpenters, has made quite an improvement on his residence. He has a beautiful home in a real prominent place. Mr. Rudder is a reader and friend to the Nashville Globe. Mrs. Emma Rudder has made her arrival from Chattanooga, after spending several days with her father, and he came home with her to stay a while. Mr. John Washington and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whitley Ditty the fourth Sunday. Mrs. Dora I. Smith was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Hurt last Thursday. The Book Club met last Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Lula Walls. The topic was quite interesting. Rev. W. C. Crutcher filled his pulpit at Scotsboro, Ala., last Sunday. The colored school board is expecting to meet this week to formulate some plans how to prolong our school term. Patrons, do you want your children educated? If you do, are you willing to co-operate with us and supplement? For it is impossible for us to educate our little dear ones with the little county or public funds we get. Let us strive to pay our children what we owe them, a Christian training and some education. The time has come and we as a race have to pay something out of our pockets if we expect our children to be educated. Are you reading the Globe? If not, why not? Little John H. Smith, Jr., will bring it to your home. Mr. Philip Matthews departed this life last Wednesday night. He died in full triumph of faith, being a member of the A. M. E. church. Sick list: Mrs. Kate Smith, Miss Mary Rulford and Mr. D. C. Stephens. Prof. G. W. Brooks and J. H. Hurt were the guests of Rev. S. P. Gurley after attending service last Sunday. Remember when you read the Globe you are reading a paper of our own. The race should be proud of it.

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

The groundhog certainly saw his shadow, though Sunday was a gloomy day here with the exception of a space of time between 9 and 10 a. m. when the king of day unmasked himself. St. Valentine's day is looked forward to with great joy. Some parties are being planned. The Dr. H. M. S. Byrom Union Literary Club is making good her designated purpose. The program at Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church was exceptionally good. At Little Bethel A. M. E. Church this week the new quartette will render a selection. The names of the persons who compose the quartette are: Messrs. Hill, Morris, Astrapp and Greer. The A. M. E. Zion church will be the scene of the literary club next week. Mr. Sam Greer, of Jasper, was the guest of his brother, Prof. F. C. Greer, last Sunday. Mrs. J. M. Hawkins and Miss J. A. Lightfoot spent a day last week with friends at Bridgeport, Ala. Mrs. Tommie Gill, of Chattanooga, and Miss Margaret Sharp, of Bridgeport, Ala., were here as guests of Mrs. J. J. McElroy recently. Mrs. Ben Jones has returned from an extended trip to visit relatives at Cedar town and Rome, Ga. Mr. Louis Griscorn was the guest of his wife recently, but has returned to Oakdale, Tenn. Rev. and Mrs. Duncan, of Jasper, were here some days ago, the guests of Mrs. Ella Hyatt, out on the pike. The Rev. preached at the M. E. church. The sacred concert given at the M. E. church by Mrs. J. D. Martin and others at 3 p. m. last Sunday was a success, though several of the performers were absent. Master Julian Martin recited the highest number of Bible verses of his class. Mrs. Eva Mack is mingling among friends here again. Mrs. Mack has temporarily resided at Dayton for the past year, as her husband is pastor of the C. P. church at that point. Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of the M. E. church, preached at the A. M. E. Zion church last Sunday to a creditable congregation. Mrs. Della Clark was called to Chattanooga to the bedside of her sick sister, Mrs. Alice Miller. A communion service at Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church last Sunday was impressively executed. Mr. John Abien, who came home from

Guild very sick, is convalescent. Little Ledalia Bivens, who is suffering with tuberculosis, is no better at this writing. The death of Mrs. Elvira Johnson last week was a shock to the community. Mrs. Johnson was supposed to have been out of danger from a previous illness, and had been able to be about the house and work. She was a thorough Christian lady, worshipped with the Mt. Bethlehem Baptist congregation and was also a dutiful member of S. M. T. Temple of this place. Mrs. Johnson was an elderly lady, but possessed such traits of character that she was greatly admired by the children generally. None knew her but to love her. Her remains were taken to Birmingham, Ala., for interment. Beautiful was her life, beautiful too were her robe and casket. The remains were accompanied to Birmingham by husband and grandson of the deceased. The Worthy Princess and Worthy Secretary of Masadana Temple No. 44 at this place arranged over wire for one of the W. P.'s in Birmingham S. M. T. Temples to take charge of ritualistic services, etc., of this deceased sister. The Worthy Princess and Worthy Secretary accompanied the family last Thursday, the 30th, to Bridgeport, Ala., and returned that night. Truly,

"Death has been here and borne away
A sister from our side;
Just in the noontime of her day,
Oder than we, she died.

"We cannot tell who next may fall
Beneath the chattering rod;
One must be first, but let us all
Prepare to meet our God."

PIKEVILLE NOTES.

The weather in Pikeville is very rainy, following the cold spell of the 1st and 2nd. Services at the A. M. E. Zion church on the Sabbath were very lightly attended. Mrs. Sallie Bridgman is still improving. Her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Fales, has planned to take her departure for Lake Forest, Ill., on the 5th. Her mother and many friends regret very much to give her up since she has proven to be such an excellent nurse in the sick room and has made things so pleasant in a general way for the friends. Mr. Win Roberson, one among the best lovers and most respected citizens of this community, is planning a trip to Dayton and other parts to see if he might not find him a helpmeet. Mr. Roberson has a five-room house well furnished on a small farm well watered, and every provision made for the comfort and satisfaction of a good woman. Mr. C. F. Springs, in his usual way of thinking, believes in the progress of the race, to the end that every young man should save his money and purchase a home either in town or in the country, which is the most potent factor to give us a rating among other races. Mr. Ed Cook, a man of brains, believes that the destiny of the race for franchise and power, lies in a careful preparation of the head, hands and heart, being backed up by a well-arranged home, either in town or on a farm. Mrs. Mary Bridgman has been on the sick list with la grippe, but is some better at this writing. Mrs. Retha Bennett has been on the list for several days but is able to be out again and at her post of duty. Miss Rosy Hixson has been somewhat indisposed by overworking herself in moving, but reports her condition of health much improved in the last two or three days. Miss Hixson is among the older ladies of this town, but deserves special mention, for she is a woman of high ideals and noble traits of character and a Christian woman in every sense of the term. Too much cannot be said in her praise. Mr. Wm. Roddy, a man of great farming qualities, is cleaning gardens and various lots around town preparatory to plowing and planting as soon as the rain and snow will cease. He owns his wagon and team, and is looking forward to buying a home in town. We wish him much success.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

The great union revival closed last Sunday with a great meeting at St. Peter A. M. E. Church, at which time Dr. Buckner preached one of the strangest sermons of the three weeks' series. During last week the services were held at Wesley Chapel and the large auditorium was inadequate to accommodate the crowd which nightly tried to gain entrance. The oldest inhabitants say that such a religious awakening was never before witnessed in Clarksville. In just three weeks one hundred and sixty-five, or more persons were drawn from the paths of sin to the path of righteousness and all the churches are taking on new life. The converts are scattering among all the churches; twenty joined St. Peter's last Sunday. Next Sunday at St. Peter's A. M. E. Church the birthday of Richard Allen, founder of African Methodism, will be celebrated. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Dr. D. A. Graham, will preach on "The Spirit and Aim of Richard Allen." At 3 o'clock a young people's mass-meeting will be held. At 7:30 p. m. an interesting program will be rendered under the auspices of the Allen C. E. League, J. S. Smith, president. Persons participating on the program are Dr. C. A. Kelly, Mrs. D. A. Graham, Prof. H. R. Merry, Dr. Buckner, Mrs. Mattie Kelly, Miss Birdie Manson, Prof. A. M. Lyle and Miss Mary Porter. Everybody and his cousins are invited. On the 18th inst., Prof. Charles Stewart, the most humorous lecturer of the race, will be at St. Peter. If you want a good evening of enjoyment, be sure to be there. The funeral of Miss Bettie Goodall, the seventeen year old daughter of Mr. Henry Goodall, took place from Wesley Chapel last Monday afternoon. Miss Goodall had been ill for some time, but had been able to be around the house until a few hours before her demise. She was a very sweet girl and her funeral was largely attended. Rev. T. H. Copeland preached an able sermon. Mrs. Della Clark was called to Chattanooga to the bedside of her sick sister, Mrs. Alice Miller. A communion service at Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church last Sunday was impressively executed. Mr. John Abien, who came home from has had quite a few visitors this week. Among them are Mr. Willard Merriweather, Rev. Owen Corrington, of Earlington, Ky., whose wives have had operations at the Infirmary. Mrs. John Pollard, of Greenwood, Miss. Misses Lula Bell and Sammie Hawkins of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. Rodman Smith, Miss Lizzie Ramey, principal colored public school, and the Little Misses Greenlaws, whose mother has sufficiently recovered from the operation to return home. Messrs. Pig, Bob and Ross Quarles, of Howell, Ky.; Mr. Stacker, of Hackberry, Tenn.

PARIS NOTES.

Mrs. Ada Porter entertained beautifully at her home on Risen street, Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5. Mrs. Lizzie Warfield, of Fulton, Ky., was here Saturday on business. Mrs. G. P. Woodson, accompanied by her husband, Rev. G. P. Woodson, is in Nashville for surgical treatment. Mrs. E. Pritchette, husband and daughter, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting relatives and friends. Next Sunday at 3 p. m. at Quinn Chapel a program and rally will be conducted by the League. Miss Lillian Fitch spent Sunday at Puryear. Mrs. J. S. Kelly is out again after a brief illness. Mrs. Susan Crawford is on the sick list. The pulpit at Mt. Zion Baptist Church was occupied by Rev. W. B. Webb.

MASON NOTES.

Rev. H. P. Gordon, pastor of Alexander Chapel M. E. Church, preached a great sermon last Sunday at 11 a. m. from the following text: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." The wives of Rev. Douglas, pastor of St. Mark C. M. E. Church, and Rev. Hubert, pastor of Cedar Grove Baptist Church, worshipped at the M. E. church on last Sunday. Rev. P. H. Ruffin is spending most of his time at present in the Bluff City in interest of his church. Miss Ester Lee Fields, teacher of Brighton District School, was in the city last Saturday and Sunday visiting her parents. The missionary program conducted last Sunday by the president, M. W. Ruffin, in the M. E. Church Sunday School was grand. The program was composed of speeches, recitations and solos. Collection for the great cause "Missions" followed the expiration of the program. Have you read the Globe? Why, read it and you'll never do without it.

BARTLETT NOTES.

Dear Editor: The I. P. B. No. 2 Society has triumphed for over 35 years and today we can say we feel like going on with the leadership of Rev. T. G. Walton, president, who is serving his fourth term. We have a large membership of 150 members; meetings days are on the first Saturday in each month at 2 o'clock. The officers are: Rev. T. G. Walton, president. The Executive Committee meets at 8 o'clock. M. L. Edward, chairman; A. G. King, secretary. Male Stewards at 8 p. m. M. H. Neale, chief; Female Stewards at 8; Sallie Galloway, chief marshal; W. W. Williams, chaplain; Rev. A. Reddett. Come over in Macedonia and see us at Bartlett, Tenn.

EDENWOLD NOTES.

Rev. Gilmore held his services at Dry Creek Chapel last Sunday. Although it was "ground hog" day and the weather was bad, the service was much enjoyed. There will be a grand entertainment at Dry Creek the 14th and a grand celebration the 22nd. Mr. George Cunningham is on the sick list this week. Mrs. Oldham was the guest of Mrs. Maggie Gee last Thursday. Mr. Alex Patton, of Nashville, was the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, last Sunday. Also the guests of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Oldham. Mr. and Mrs. Benly have moved to the Palmer Farm with the rest of the family, where they will live this year. Mrs. Oldham entertained at dinner last Friday Rev. Gilmore and Mr. Holder. Some of the friends of Mrs. Oldham met at her home and pleated quilts and played checkers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Brown and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. Orange Cantrel and Mr. Holder. Mrs. Florence Haney, who has been spending some months with her sister, Mrs. Oldham, has returned to Nashville, where she and husband will spend the rest of the winter.

GREENFIELD NOTES.

Our town is moving on nicely. The factories are running and other public work is picking up. Miss E. B. Taylor, our teacher, went to Jackson Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lillian Higgs Beaver returned from Sharon Friday afternoon with her son, Curtis. Mrs. Leslie McCorry, who has been in Luke county for several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Paralee Hurt, and daughter, Mrs. Minnie Mosely, came home last week. Mr. Roman Rodgers, while out flagging one day last week happened to a very painful accident. As he caught the train, being near a cattle guard he was knocked off by the same breaking his right leg in two places—just above the knee and near the thigh. He was immediately sent to Jackson, where he will receive special attention at the R. R. hospital. His many friends regret this accident and are in much sympathy with him. The following are reported sick this week: Mrs. Mamie Sneed, Mrs. Sarah Simmons and Mr. James Williams, Jr. Mr. Sellus White, who had a severe stroke of paralysis several weeks ago, is able to be up. His many friends are proud of his improvement. Rev. C. H. Ivie came in Saturday night and filled his appointment at St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday. He reports that Mrs. Ivie, who has been real sick, improving. Rev. Ivie is always welcomed in our midst. Rev. C. A. Craig, pastor of the C. M. E. Church, filled his appointment Sunday morning and night. Text Sunday morning was John 3:12. Subject: "God's love to mankind." The subject was handled in a very practical way, making some very striking illustrations and comparisons. The services on the whole were very impressive.

SHARON NOTES.

On Tuesday night, January 28th, a large crowd turned out to the school house, where an interesting debate was had on the following subject: "Resolved, That the Farmer is More Beneficial to Our Land and Country Than the Manufacturer." The debaters were: Affirmative: Mr. Kelley Rodgers and Rev. Tom Tansil; Negative: Mr. Alex Rogers and Mr. Elton Pigue. The house elected Prof. M. A. Dobbs as chairman. The judges were Messrs. Steven Brasfield, Will Brasfield, Fenner Clemmons, West Adams and Elmore Tansil, negative. Quite an interesting part. After careful consideration by the judges, the decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative—the Farmer. The subject is expected to be debated again in the near future. Watch the Globe. "Resolved, That Fire is More Destructive Than Water," will be had Tuesday night, February 11th, by Rev. Tom Tansil and Mr. Kelly Rodger, affirmative; and Messrs. Alex Rodgers and George Tansil, negative. Quite an interesting time is expected. The following are on the sick list: Mrs. A. Eunity, Mrs. Mamie and Mrs. Emerline Tansil, Miss Susie Hester, Mr. Tansil Shull, who was shot several days ago, is reported improving. Mr. William Percie Tansil, when leaving the debate Tuesday night, January 28th, happened with an accident by striking one of his eyes hurt on the wire fence. Same was not serious.
